Photographs of August

Magical things happen between June and August

I make friends in the summer

Clear your mind and shoot your bow

I was made for sunny days

Smell the sea and feel the sky

In summer, the song sings itself

The summer is best for team sports

Summer school, a chance to get ahead

Summer School is where I learnt about myself

Be better than you were yesterday

Trust is built and maintained by many small actions over time

When the sun is shining
I can do anything

Summer is the height of being alive

Photographs of August

Happiness is getting the hula-hoop going

Fence every bout like it is your last

Create the things you wish existed

Say yes to new adventures

Like walking on water, only better

The world reveals itself to those who travel on foot

The mind is your greatest weapon

Summer is a state of mind

Horses and humans get on well in the summer

Summer is a time for friends

The best view comes after the hardest climb

Like life, mistakes are part of the game. It's how you recover from them, that is important

Sometimes you win, sometimes you learn
